

Refine Before Fullness

✧ WAXING GIBBOUS — REFINE & PREPARE ✧

My original intention was:

Since I began, I have noticed:

What's working?

What isn't working?

What have I learned?

✧ Does My Intention Need Refinement? ✧

- ☐ No — I'm still moving in the right direction.
- ☐ A little — the goal is right, but my approach needs adjusting.
- ☐ Yes — I've learned that what I really want is different.

What I want to adjust:

*What does this need
before it can become complete?*

The Moon as Mirror

Full Moon illumination asks us to see what is actually there.

LIGHT

What am I proud of?

What has grown?

What strength am I finally recognizing in myself?

What deserves celebration?

SHADOW

What have I been avoiding?

What truth is becoming
difficult to ignore?

What pattern can I see
more clearly now?

What part of myself needs
acknowledgment rather than judgment?

What is visible now that I couldn't see before?

Full Moon Charging Ritual

Tonight I am charging:

- ☐ Moon Water
- ☐ Crystal
- ☐ Jewelry
- ☐ Altar Tool
- ☐ Charm
- ☐ Other: _____

I want this object to carry the intention of:

*Under the light of the Full Moon,
I honor what has grown.
I give thanks for what has been revealed.
May this carry the wisdom, clarity,
and fullness of this moment
into the days ahead.*

★ When I Retrieve It ★

What do I want this object to remind me of?

How will I use it?

Where will I keep it?

Moon Water Reminder:

If you intend to drink your moon water,
use clean drinking water and a clean, food-safe covered container.

Stand in the Light

You planted something
when no one could see it.

You tended it
when it was small.

You kept going
when the path asked something of you.

Now stand in the light.

See what has grown.

Honor what you have learned.

Celebrate what you have become.

And do not turn away
from what the light reveals.

*You do not need to be perfect
to be worthy of celebration.*
